"MY LOST YOUTH"

Often I think of the beautiful town
That is seated by the sea;
Often in thought go up and down
The pleasant streets of that dear old town,
And my youth comes back to me.

Blow, oh gentle mountain breezes
from the golden West,

Breathe thy peaceful evening tidings
to our W.H.S.

Orange and Black wave proudly o'er us
May you never fall,

Whisper to us words of pleasure
Lead us over all.

Night has slowly crept around us,
Stars are in the sky,

As we bravely wave our banner
Over Weatherly High.

We will always sing thy praises,
Work for thy success,

Hail to noble Alma Mater;
Hail to W.H.S.

We, the senior class, wish to express our respect and appreciation to one who has devoted thirty-eight years of his life to the students of W.H.S. He has helped to mold the character of all who have known him, both as teacher and high school principal. His "You asked for it" motto, will long be remembered by all his students. It is an honor to dedicate the 1968 "Nugget" to Mr. Reid Rahn.

Yearbook Editors

Editors Message

As the Editors of this yearbook, we have come across many memorable and rewarding experiences.

We have tried to capture all of the highlights of our senior year in hope it will renew fond memories.

We want to thank our parents, teachers, and students who have put so much work into this yearbook. Without their help, this yearbook would not have been possible.

Editor - Linda Younker
Assistant Editor - Beth McKelvey

Message

The period through which we are passing is teaching us with increasing emphasis that there are values which are fundamental and which have been too much neglected in the conventional school of the past.

In Weatherly we are particularly interested in the present lives of the boys and girls in our case. It is our concern that the school life shall inculcate ideals and attitudes of right living which shall persist in the out-of-school life of both the present and the future.

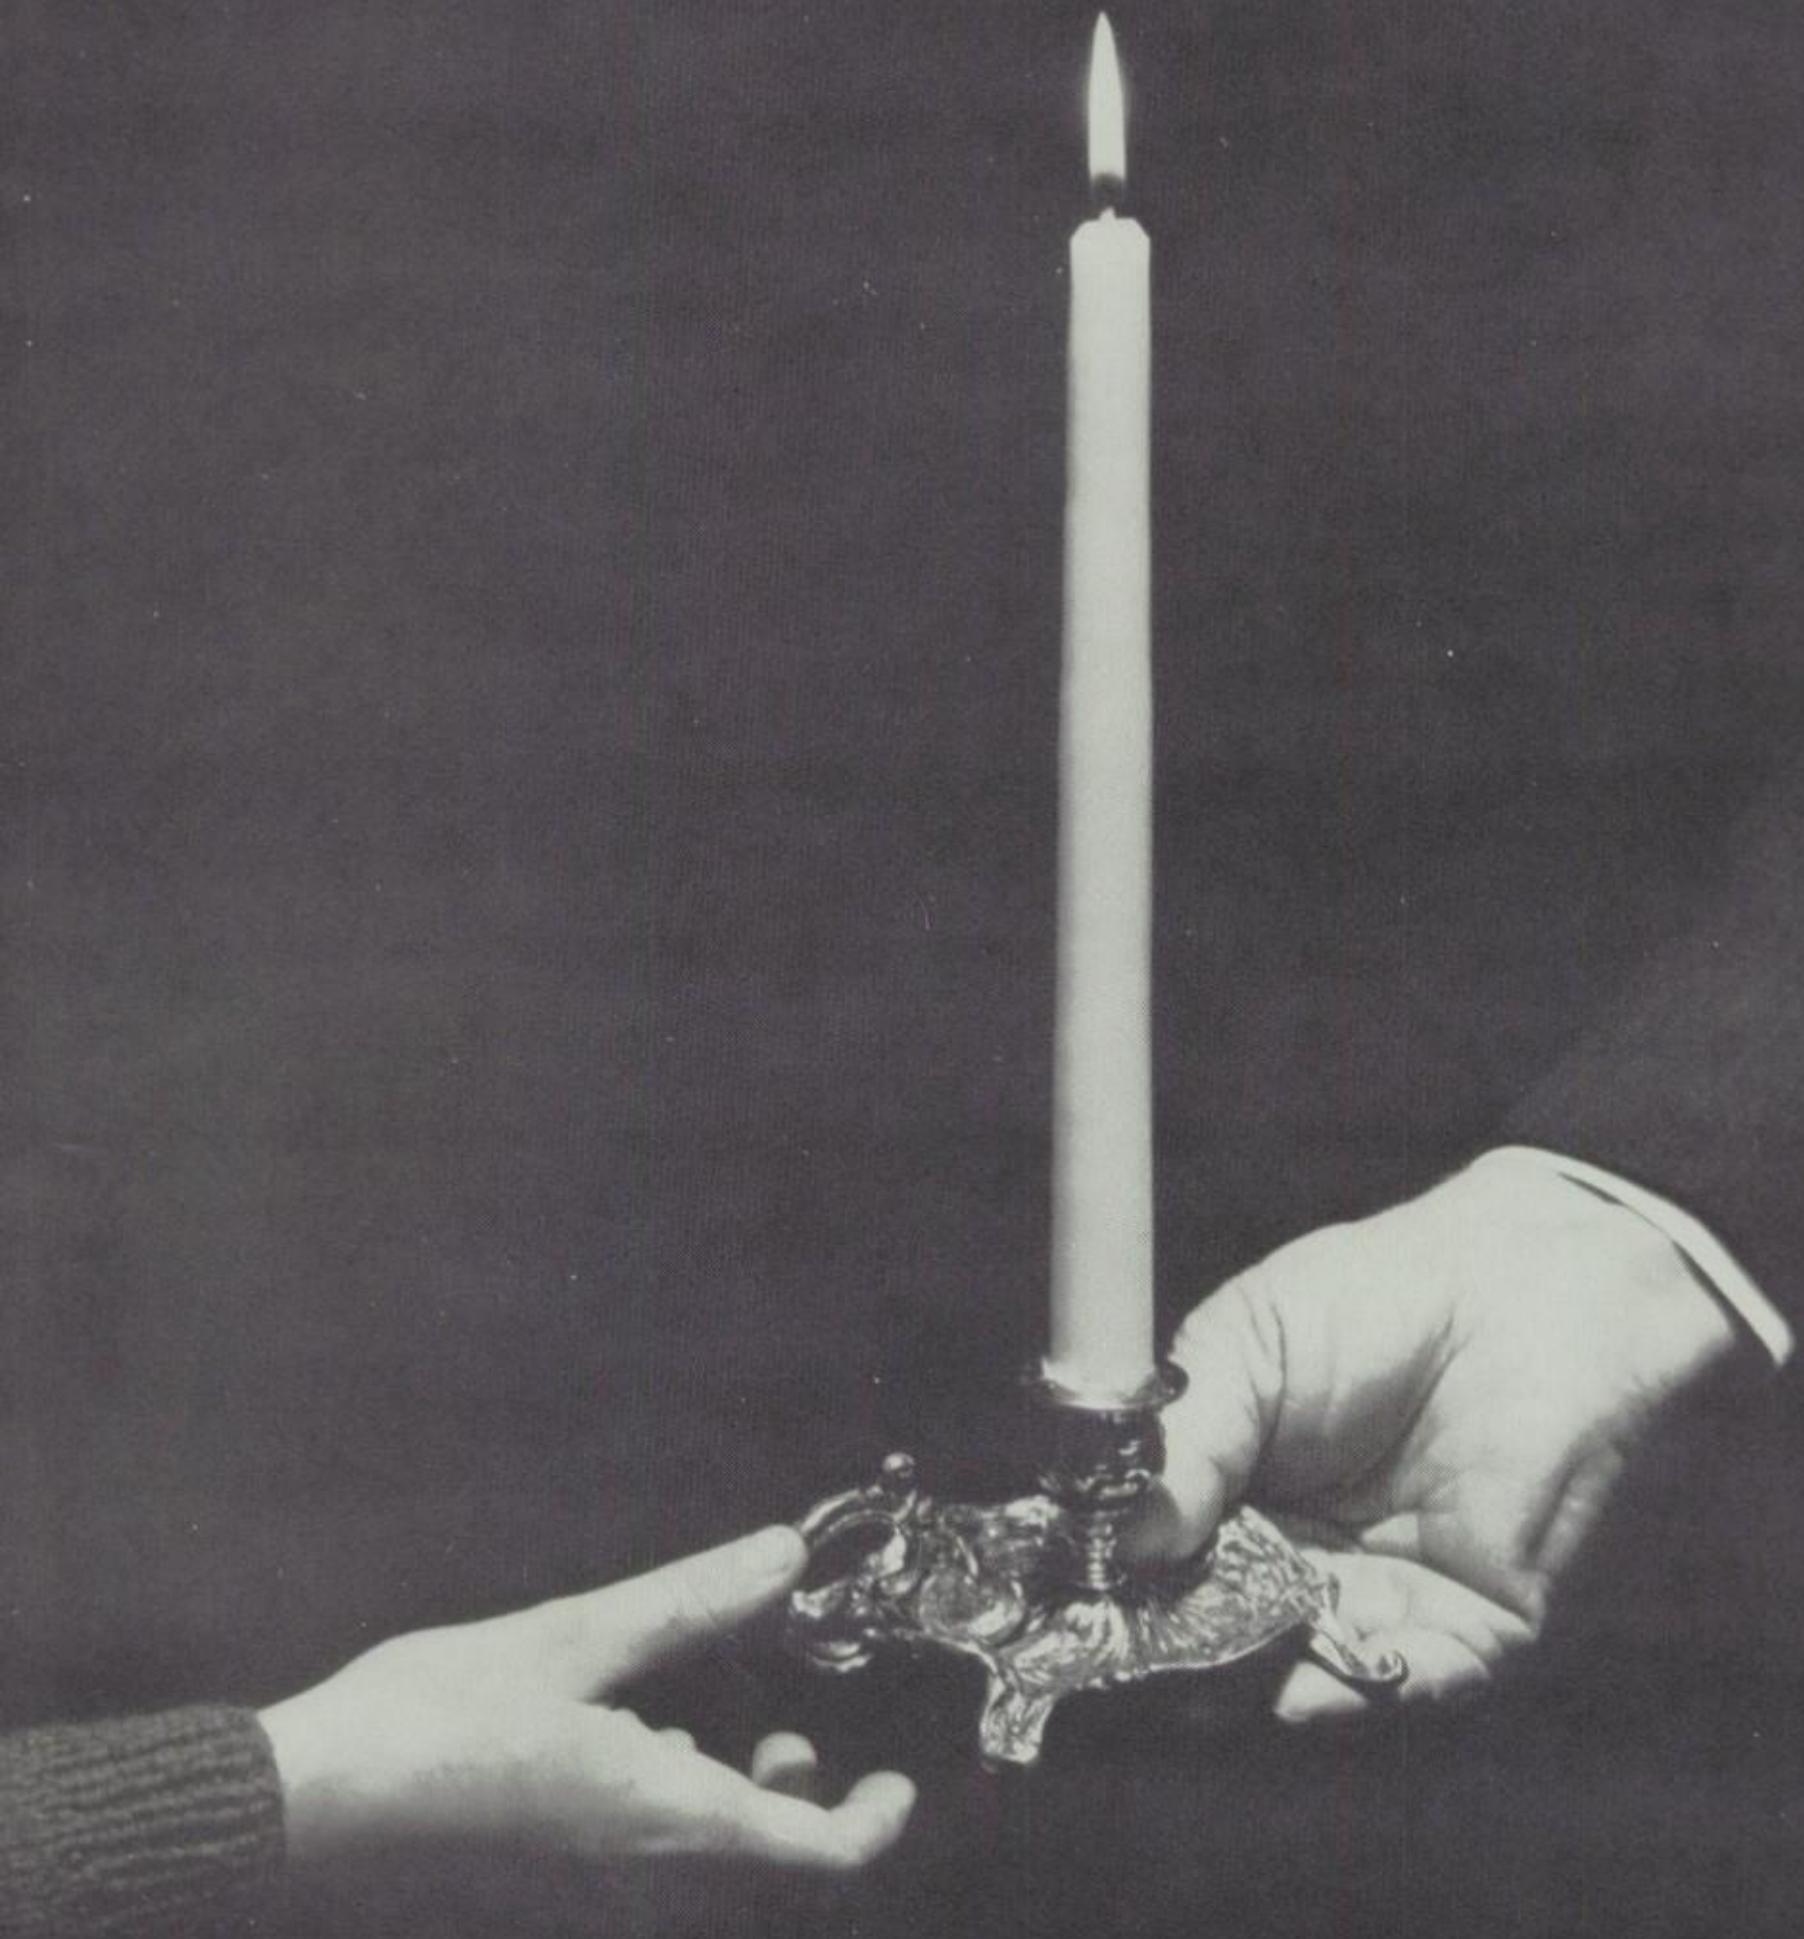

MR. THOMAS J. WALKER, Supervising
Principal

Your days of high school are now behind you. We only hope that we have contributed a background to prepare you for the demands placed upon you in the future. My wish is that each of you will succeed in the future.

Chapter 3 THE BEGINNINGS OF GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES

The roots of American government reach deep into the past. Our system of government did not suddenly spring into being at the voice of some political prophet's wand. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

The Colonial Period

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegian, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to control the thirteen colonies that stretched for 3,000 miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

These early pioneers who cleared the wilderness and fought off the Indians had to look out for their own future in the New World. But they came here in search of freedom from dom and they brought with them a rich political heritage. They brought with them the ideas of freedom and self-government. They brought with them the idea of a government that was responsible to the people. They brought with them the idea of a government that was elected by the people. They brought with them the idea of a government that was limited in its powers. They brought with them the idea of a government that was free to change.

Founding Fathers of Colonial America. The struggle for freedom was a long one. It was a struggle for the rights of the people to be governed by laws made by themselves. We shall now explore the roots of these beginnings.

SECTORS AT WORK

Early Americans had to try to get on their own. They had to learn to work the land. They had to learn to use tools. They had to learn to build houses. They had to learn to grow food. They had to learn to make clothes. They had to learn to make everything they needed.

They brought with them the idea of a government that was responsible to the people. They brought with them the idea of a government that was elected by the people. They brought with them the idea of a government that was limited in its powers. They brought with them the idea of a government that was free to change.

These early pioneers who cleared the wilderness and fought off the Indians had to look out for their own future in the New World. But they came here in search of freedom from that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration in 1689.

The Concept of Representative Government. A third vitally important concept brought to America in English shape was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

Class History

Freshman

SECTIONS:

9 A Miss Stauffer

9 B Mrs. Warner

In September of 1964, radiating confidence and high hopes, we embarked upon the preparation for our eventual "blast off." In late October much of this confidence (and pride) was shattered by our hard-better superiors. INITIATION!

Remnants of our pride doubled with our indefatigable verve helped us produce the chronicle of the year, "The Freshman Times."

Sophomore

SECTIONS:

10 A Mrs. McKelvey

10 B Mr. Junas

With a little experience and knowledge behind us we managed to get in the swing of things quite easily. This year our main assignment was a Christmas program for assembly. It portrayed three individual meanings of Christmas: 1. The Manager, 2. In the Toy Store, and 3. The Family at Christmas.

Junior

SECTIONS:

11 A Mr. Beninsky
11 C Mrs. McKelvey
11 ATS Mr. Knepper

Half way there!

This year granted us more privileges as well as responsibilities.

Our Activities included:

Junior Class Play - "DOWN TO EARTH"

Thanksgiving Dance

Valentine Dance

Junior-Senior Prom held at Gus Genetti's Lodge featuring the "Kingsmen"

CLASS OFFICERS:

President - - - - - David Hinkle
Vice-President - - - - - Wayne Wagner
Secretary - - - - - Carol Gregory
Treasurer - - - - - Charlotte Hensel
Historians - - - - - Nelda Billman
Barbara Kelshaw
Richard Porter

Senior

SECTIONS:

12 A Mr. Konkel
12 CATS Mr. Steward

This year (with our newly acquired status) we had the privilege of initiating our "greenies." Some of our other activities included:

The Hillclimb Christmas Dance
Senior Class Play - "MEET ME AT THE PROM"
Bake Sale Easter Dance Candy Sale

At last! The count-down has begun. We're in the last stages of training for our own orbits!
